REGION IX

Report No. 1/2, Week Ending Nov. 30, 2008

Around the Region

Casper College

The Casper College are off to a 2-7 start this year under the direction of Joel Davidson, who was at Sheridan last year. The T-birds hosted a home tournament over Thanksgiving and went 1-2, dropping Colorado Northwestern 94-69 behind Brian Ridgeway's 23 points and eight rebounds. Langston Banks also had 17 points. They then lost to College of Eastern Utah as Marshall Kelly had 17 points and Ridgeway had, and then to Northeastern Colorado as Robert Mayes had a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds.

Northeastern Junior College

The Northeastern Plainsmen are 8-4 on the season after going 3-1 last weekend. The team's only loss was to College of Eastern Utah by six points as AJ Wilson had a double-double with 20 points and 11 rebounds. The team also won against Garden City as Wilson had a double-double with 18 points and 16 rebounds, Colorado Northwestern with Wilson, again, posting 16 points to lead the team. They finished the tournament with a win against Casper behind a double-double by Will Bell with 12 points and 12 rebounds.

Lamar Community College

The Lamar Community College Runnin' Lopes are 7-4 on the season. In their last game, the Lopes downed the Pueblo All-Stars as PJ Reyes had 23 points. The team also defeated Independence Community College and Central Christian J.V. earlier in the season. The Independence contest was an overtime win where Reyes finished with 37 points and eight points to lead the team.

Southeast Community College

The Southeast Storm are 5-4 on the season after a 3-1 weekend. The team started with a loss to North Dakota College of Science as Tywain Hill had 22 points. They rebounded with three straight wins, topping Hastings J.V., Highland Community College and Eastern Wyoming College's Billy Butler goes up for a lay-up during their game against Williston State College. Butler had the game-winning half-court shot to win the game against Williston last Saturday.

Union College J.V. Donell Walker had 12 points in the Hastings win, while Hill had 18 against Highland and Aaron Russell had 16 against Union College.

Sheridan College

The Sheridan College Generals are averaging nearly 100 points a game through seven games and they have picked up some nice wins, including dropping Northeastern Colorado 107-89 behind Scottie Payne's 26 points and Quintin Dailey's 22 points. Payne had been one of the team's top scorers, along with Dailey. Sophomore Moustapha Diarra also has been a force, leading the team in scoring and rebounding in a couple of games. Last weekend, the team picked up two wins as Sheridan defeated Little Big Horn 121-90 as Dailey had 21 points, and Diarra and Terrance Edwards each had 20 points. They also defeated Rocky Mountain J.V. as Diarra had 26 points.

Western Nebraska Community College

The Cougars are 9-3 on the young season including a six-game win streak, which was stopped on Tuesday by Laramie County Community College 70-66 on the road. Last week, the Cougars won their fourth straight win with a comeback win against Eastern Wyoming College on Tuesday 89-82. WNCC trailed by 16 at halftime and was down by 20 at one time. They then topped Williston State 119-111 in overtime as Scott Bamforth and Francisco Cruz each hit for 30 points. WNCC followed that up with a 79-73 win against Trinidad, led by Cruz with 20 points. WNCC saw their win streak stopped at LCCC as Cruz led the way with 23 points.

North Platte Community College

North Platte's Joseph Ragland and Eugene Bain are becoming a one-two punch for the Knights. Ragland rattled home 41 points in a win against West Texas, while Bain had led the team in scoring in three games and led the team in rebounding in six of seven games. Bain scored 32 and pulled down 18 rebounds against Milestone Prep. He also had 18 points and 17 rebounds in a win against Otero Junior College. Delano Howard also had a 23-point effort against Lamar Community College, while Ragland lit up the Golden Eagles of LCCC for 24 points. Bain had four straight double-figure rebounding games, including a double-double against Lamar, 18 points and 17 rebounds.

Central Wyoming College

The Rustlers, who are beginning their first year back in Region IX after about 10 years away, are 6-6 on the season. Last weekend, the Rustlers went 2-1 with the only loss coming to Salt Lake as Jake Woodruff had 17 points. The Rustlers also won a pair of games against Williston, topping the Tetons 86-77 as Paul Brotherson had 17 points and five rebounds and Preston Richards had 15 points and nine rebounds. Central Wyoming then defeated them again, 92-80, as Jake Woodruff had 24 points and six 3-pointers, while Tanner Adams had 23 points and 12 rebounds.

Western Wyoming Community College

The Western Wyoming Mustangs are 5-5 on the season after going 2-1 last weekend. The Mustangs fell to the College of Eastern Utah as Darin Weeks scored 20 points. They responded well after that with wins against Warren Air Force Base and Treasure Valley Community College. Macief Ustarbowski scored 21 points in the Warren win, while Eric Dearded had 33 points against Treasure Valley. Two weeks ago, the Mustangs went 1-2 at the CSI tournament. The team lost to CSI 83-77 as Darin Weeks had 23 points. They then fell to Midland College 99-56 as Weeks finished with 19 points. They capped off the tournament with a win against Santa Rosa Junior College 62-58 behind Mike Larsen's 16 points and seven rebounds.

Miles Community College

The Miles Pioneers lost a tough game to North Dakota Science 101-99 as Tyrone Williams finished with 20 points followed by Briahn Smith with 16 points. On Monday, Miles topped Lake Region as four players finished in double figures, led by Willie Brown with 19 points.

Northeast Community College

The Northeast Hawks are 6-5 on the season after picking up two wins at home in a Thanksgiving Classic. NECC defeated Concordia and Doane J.V.'s. Against Concordia, Chamar Wilson led the way with 14 points. Wilson also had 20 points in the Doane win along with David Taylor.

Otero Junior College

The Otero Rattlers moved to 8-4 on the year with two wins last week. Daniel Steffensen had a double-double of 16 points and 14 rebounds in a win against William Penn J.V. Dominic Moore followed with a 20-point outing against York College J.V.

Dawson Community College

The Dawson Bucs are 7-1 on the season after sweeping a pair of games at home last week with wins against the University of Mary J.V. Dino Gustesa led the way with 19 points, while Gary Bangert had 10 rebounds. Derek Weis had 14 points in the first game.

Northwest College

The Trappers won twice last weekend as they topped Little Big Horn as Jordan Harris had 16 points. They also beat Rocky Mountain J.V. as Julian Olubuyi had 25 points.

Trinidad State Junior College

The Trojans lost six straight despite a double-double from Josh Henry against Eastern Arizona, where he had 16 points and 16 rebounds.
