Around the Region

Western Nebraska Community College

The WNCC Cougars collected their 20th win of the season, which makes it the 22nd straight season that the Cougars have won 20 or more games. WNCC picked up two wins last week, running its winning streak to five games. They opened with a 68-67 thrilling win on the road against Casper as Shaquillah Davis had 21 points and Amber Kistler and Tawny Drexler had seven rebounds each. They finished off the week with a 90-60 win against Eastern Wyoming as Stormye Everett had 18 points and Drexler had 12 rebounds.

Northeast Community College

The Northeast Hawks went to 24-5 on the season with three wins last week, including Nebraska Conference wins over North Platte and McCook. Against North Platte, Jasmine Lovejoy had 24 points, while Raelene Ruschow and Whitley Smiley each had 10 rebounds. In the win against McCook, Lovejoy had 19 points. The Hawks also defeated Morningside junior varsity on Monday as Sofie Lundberg had 15 points.

Casper College

The Casper T-birds had just one game last week and they fell short by one point against Western Nebraska as a last second shot rang in, but the shot came from within the arc instead of behind for a 68-67 loss. Samira Van Grinsven finished with a double-double of 23 points and 13 rebounds in the contest. Casper picked up another sub-region win on Tuesday as they dropped Western Wyoming 78-66 as Josie Stewart had 16 points, including five 3-pointers for their 21st victory of the season.

Northeastern Junior College

The NJC Plainswomen won the South sub-region after dropping Lamar and Otero

Eastern Wyoming College's Ashlee Hudson looks for an outlet after hauling in a rebound during the Lancer's contest with Western Nebraska on Valentine's Day.

in games last week. The Plainswomen opened with 70-51 win over Lamar as Sabelle Diata had 16 points and seven rebounds. They then handed Otero a 59-42 loss as Amy Martin led the way with 16 points. It was the team's 23rd win of the season

McCook Community College

The McCook Indians split a pair of games.

In a 66-16 win against Nebraska School of Technical Agriculture, the Indians won 66-16 as Britney Bunker and Alexa Ward each had 11 points. They then dropped a sub-region contest to Northeast Nebraska as Skylar Johnson had 12 points and eight rebounds, while Emmalee Fladland had 13 points.
