Report No. 9 • Week Ending Nov. 1, 2009

Around the Region

Central Wyoming College

The Central Wyoming Rustlers head into the regional tournament after dropping a Wyoming Conference contest to Casper in five thrilling sets. CWC fell in the fifth set 15-11 as Dixie Warren had 18 kills and Carolina Lobato had 38 digs. Central Wyoming hosts the Region IX North tournament.

Laramie County Community College

The LCCC Golden Eagles picked up two wins last week in dropping Eastern Wyoming and Sheridan. Against Eastern, Tatyana Lukanenka had 17 kills and a hitting efficiency of .516. Janae Kindall finished with 11 kills. In the win against Sheridan, Kelsey Skaar led the way with six kills, while Lukyanenko and Sydney Brozovich each had three blocks.

McCook Community College

The McCook Indians dropped two contests last week. They first lost to Southeast Nebraska as Brittany Halligan and Joanna Bryant each had seven kills. Ariel Dunker also had seven blocks in the contest. They then fell to Western Nebraska as Bryant Dunker each had four kills. Dunker also had eight blocks.

Sheridan College

The Sheridan Generals went 1-2 in Wyoming Conference action. The squad topped Eastern Wyoming in three sets as Ta'Ase Iona nine kills and Nikita Wickham had five blocks. They also fell to Northwest Wyoming and Laramie County. In the Northwest loss, Jamaika Lorenzo had five kills and Wickham had four blocks. Against LCCC, Tajana Santiago had eight kills and De-Ann Smith had seven blocks.

Northwest College

The Northwest Trappers won their fifth straight match with two Wyoming Conference wins last week. The Trappers topped Sheridan in straight sets as Mayara Conilho had 11 kills and Paula Barros had 10. They then dumped Eastern Wyoming as Irelis Avendano had 15 kills and Katie Gregg finished with five aces and six kills.

Lamar Community College

The Lamar Runnin' Lopes enter the regional tournament on a nice note after dropping rival Otero Junior College in five sets. After losing the first set, Lamar won the second and fourth sets, and then took the fifth 15-12. Dustina Bitten had a double-double with 15 kills and 19 digs. Camille Rand had five aces.

Otero Junior College

Otero went to 16-22 on the season with a split of sub-region contests last week. They started with a five-set road loss to Lamar Community College. They then topped Trinidad State in three straight. Brittany Sciacca led the team in kills in both matches.

North Platte Community College

The Lady Knights can call themselves Region IX champions after capturing the Region IX Division II championship on Saturday. They will next play in North Dakota for the right to go to nationals. North Platte started the tournament by turning back Southeast Nebraska in four sets as Brandi Dye had 12 kills. They then topped Central-Columbus in five agonizing sets as Erica Broan had 17 kills and Brandi Dye had 11 points. That moved North Platte in to the championship and Central-Columbus forced the if-necessary game by dropping the Knights in four sets. Erica Dye had 11 kills in the loss. North Platte returned the favor in the "true" championship in beating the Raiders in four sets, claiming the fourth sets 26-24. Erica Brown had a near triple-double, finishing with 14 kills, 22 digs and nine points.

Trinidad State Junior College

The Trojans finished the regular season by dropping a contest against Otero in straight sets. Jillian Wilkins led the team with six kills, while Katheine Harris had five blocks and Shervonn Johnson had 19 sets assists. Meghan Flaherty added four aces.

Casper College

Casper College enters the regional tournament on quite a bit of momentum after claiming a pair of Wyoming Conference contests to finish the regular season 29-8. The T-Birds started by dropping Central Wyoming in five sets as Katya Kopanarova had 17 kills. they then dropped Western Wyoming in four sets behind Kopanarova and Konefesi Vaisigano's 13 kills.

Eastern Wyoming College

The Lancers dropped three contests last week in straight sets. They fell to Laramie County in a sub-region contest as Chelsi Lemmon and Nolle Jones each had five kills. Sammie Perkins then pounded home 10 kills in a loss to Sherdan College as Erica Coats had seven points. In the regular season finale against Northwest, Perkins had seven kills and four points.

Northeastern Junior College

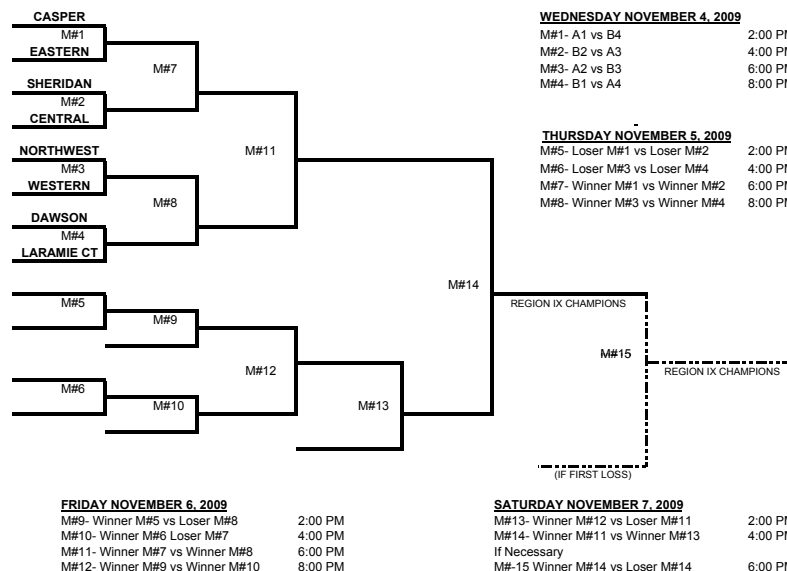

The Plainswomen picked up a huge regular season-ending win as they dropped WNCC in five hard-fought sets. NJC took a 2-0 lead and then had to capture the fifth set 18-16 to get the win. Karen Rivatto had 21 kills in the win. NJC will host the Region IX South tournament that begins Thursday.

Western Nebraska Community College

WNCC enters the regional tournament in hopes of winning its 11th straight, but it won't be easy as the Cougtars fell to the host team NJC in five sets last week. In that contest, WNCC fell behind 2-0 before putting up a fierce rally before falling 18-16 in the fifth. WNCC played without their starting setter Sabina Piegza, who has been out for two weeks. Kaleinani Kabalis paced the team with 19 kills and 18 digs. Cami Weimer finished with 23 digs, while Kathryn Stock finished with 14 kills. The team rebounded to claim a sweep of McCook as Kabalis finished with 13 kills and Brooke Blomenkamp had 12 kills.
