

WNCC Baseball Competitive Pitching League

The WNCC Cougars Baseball Team, along with Head Coach Mike Jones would like to invite you to join a competitive pitching league. This league is designed for baseball players to work on their skills and have some fun competing against their friends.

Open to ages 10-18. Pitchers will be paired up in groups of 2, and matched up against other pitchers of the same age range and will play games of “Pitching Tic-Tac-Toe” to develop skills of locating pitches. Pitching league will be held 3 nights, on February 25th, March 2nd, and March 4th.

The league will be limited to the first 48 pitchers to sign up. The cost is $50 per player.

The pitching league will be held at Comm Shop #6, the Cougars Indoor Hitting Facility, located just south of East Overland on 2nd Ave in Scottsbluff. Feedback and coaching will be done by Cougars Head Coach Mike Jones, Cougars Assistant and Pitching Coach Ryan Burgner, Gering Junior Legion Coach Doug Jones, and Cougar Catchers Jason Sloan, Shane Wade and Caleb Patton.

Take advantage of this opportunity to join the Cougars and work on your pitching skills before the season starts!

SIGN UP AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!!
THE LEAGUE WILL FILL UP FAST—LIMITED TO THE FIRST 48
