REGION IX

Report No. 7, Week Ending January 31, 2010

Around the Region

Dawson Community College

Dawson's Brittney Ceaser came up big in a sub-region lose to Miles Community College over the weekend. Ceaser scored 24 points in the team's 88-56 loss. In a game before that, Krista Williams had a double-double of 13 points and 13 rebounds against Sheridan College.

Otero Junior College

The Otero Rattlers picked up two wins last week, including a huge road victory over Western Nebraska where they hung on to the four-point win after leading 35-21 at halftime. Kari Ameling had a double-double for the Rattlers with 20 points and 12 rebounds. They also defeated McPherson J.V. as Shannon Rousseau had 14 points.

Miles Community College

The Miles women split a pair of games last week. They started with a MON-DAK conference loss to Williston State as Shaye Murphy had 11 points. They rebounded with a sub-region win against Dawson as Fusi Lutui scored 23 points in the 88-56 win.

Gillette College

The Gillette Pronghorns dropped their fifth straight in suffering losses to Eastern Wyoming and Air Force Prep over the weekend. In the 80-71 loss to EWC, a sub-region game, Katie Strandholm had 14 points, while LaTeesha Nez and Jessica Benally each had 12 points. Gillette then faced Air Force Prep in Cheyenne, Wyo., and fell 71-59 as Nikki Tresch had 16 points.

North Platte Community College

The North Platte Knights picked up 2 of 3 wins last week. They started with a 58-51 win over Eastern Wyoming in which Ivy Kuroki had a double-double collecting 21 points and 10 rebounds. The Knights then dropped a Nebraska Conference game to Northeast

Northeastern Junior College's Sabella Diata blocks a shot by WNCC's Shelby Campbell during the second half of their game last week in Sterling, Colo. NJC came back from a 25-20 halftime deficit to defeat WNCC 58-39.

Nebraska at Nancy Kirkendoll had 13 points. They did rebound as they dropped Midland Lutheran J.V. 65-43 behind Kirkendoll's 17 points and Shaylyn Miller's nine rebounds.

Casper College

The Thunderbirds won their 13th straight game with victories over sub-region foes Gillette and Eastern Wyoming. In the Gillette contest, rolled to an 88-66 win as Yianna Nadeau had 14 points followed by Lindsey Fearing with 13. The Eastern Wyoming was tougher, at least in the first half, when the Lancers held a 38-36 lead. Casper, however, came out of the locker room a different team out-scoring EWC 48-28 for an 84-66 win.

Shanice Billington led the way with 22 points, while Juliana Paunovic had nine points.

Western Wyoming Community College

The Mustangs went to 14-8 on the year and 3-4 in conference play with an 80-73 win over Northwest Wyoming. Western Wyoming led 42-28 at halftime. Jensen led the way with 19 points, while Harms pulled 14 rebounds.

Central Wyoming College

The Central Wyoming Rustlers picked up two Wyoming Conference wins last week, including a huge, thrilling 58-56 win over Sheridan College. Nicole Merrill finished with a double-double in that game, pouring in 13 points and grabbing 10 rebounds. The Rustlers also picked up an 81-65 win against Northwest Wyoming where Jeri Jacobson finished with 19 points and Merrill pulled down 10 rebounds.

Little Big Horn College

Little Big Horn went to 10-14 on the season with three wins last week, including a 75-68 sub-region win against Dawson Community College. In that game Tracy Lewes finished with 15 points followed by Charla Takes Enemy with 14. The team also defeated the University of Great Falls junior varsity as well as Oglala Lakota. In the Oglala game, Loretta Brown piled on 21 points, while Takes Enemy had 18 points.

Eastern Wyoming College

The Eastern Wyoming Lancers split a pair of sub-region contests last week, falling to Casper 84-68 after leading at halftime 38-36. They also beat Gillette 80-71. The Lancers also fell to North Platte 58-51. Jessica Brown was the big star in all three games as the sophomore combined for 65 points and 30 rebounds. Against Gillette, Brown had 29 points, nine rebounds and five assists. In a loss to Casper, Brown had 21 points and 12 rebounds. She had 15 points in the loss to North Platte.

Sheridan College

The Sheridan Generals picked up a sub-region win, but lost a Wyoming Conference game last week. Mandy Mullock, however, was the big story in the two games where the sophomore combined for 43 points and 26 rebounds. In the win against Dawson, Mullock finished with 27 points and 17 rebounds. Micki Scally also finished with 22 points. Mullock had a near double-double in the loss to Central Wyoming, where she had 16 points and nine rebounds.

McCook Community College

The McCook Indians dropped a contest to Northeastern Colorado last week, falling 65-47 on the road.

Northeast Community College

The Northeast Hawks picked up three wins last week, including two Nebraska Conference victories. The Hawks topped North Platte behind Sofie Lundberg's 18 points and Carolyn Taite's 11 rebounds. They then beat McCook as Dawn Bonnell had 20 points and Stephanie Paulsen had 10 rebounds. Bonnell also had a 21-point game in a win against Briar Cliff J.V. earlier in the week.

Otero's Kari Ameling looks to bring the ball up the court after coming down with a rebound against WNCC on Saturday. Otero registered a 60-56 win.

Northeastern Junior College

The Northeastern Colorado Plainswomen picked up two wins last week as Sabella Diata had huge games. In a big win against ranked Western Nebraska, Diata had 21 points and 13 rebounds. In a sub-region against Lamar, the sophomore center had 19 points and 20 rebounds.

Western Nebraska Community College

The Cougars suffered through poor shooting and fell twice last week to Northeastern Colorado and Otero Junior College. Against NJC, WNCC led 25-20 at halftime and then scored just 14 second half points to fall. Yuki Morimoto led the team with 11 points. In the Otero game, WNCC was down 35-21 and then made a comeback before falling by four points. Stormye Everett led the way with a double-double of 18 points and 12 rebounds.
