

SOCIOLOGY

Scottsbluff/Sidney/Alliance

AA.4511 (61-64 Credits)

The Sociology emphasis area provides students with general skill in understanding the underpinnings of human relations and social structure from a variety of different viewpoints and perspectives. This course of study is for students who are interested in majoring in sociology, social work, law or medicine, as well as other related fields of study.

Objectives

- To develop an understanding of how complex societies are structured.
- To develop a sociological perspective concerning how the constituent parts of society are interfaced and interrelated.
- To develop an understanding of how the social dynamics and the social statistics of a society are molded together into a functional entity.

Notes

- Students who plan to transfer to a four-year college/university should consult their faculty advisor and the Transfer Advisor early in their WNCC enrollment to determine their curriculum.
- If the transferring institution does not require foreign language, the student may take other social science or elective courses.
- Humanities electives can be taken from art, literature, music, philosophy, theater and humanities.
- Social Science electives can be taken from Anthropology, Economics, Geography, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology or Social Science courses.
